ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

FIRST: The undersigned, Harold Louis Newman, William Bew Price, and John Gordon Webster, whose post office addresses are 1333 Winding Waye Lane, Silver Spring, Maryland 20902; 4504 Poppe Place, Camp Springs, Maryland 20031; and 1152-1 Columbus Drive, Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, District of Columbia 20331, respectively, being at least twenty-one years of age, do hereby form a corporation under the general laws of the State of Maryland.

SECOND: The name of the corporation is SOCIETY OF AIR FORCE MEDICAL LABORATORY SCIENTISTS, INC.

THIRD: The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are as follows: to foster advancement of medical laboratory science throughout the Air Force and encourage investigation into problems of medical significance in the various disciplines, and the dissemination of such knowledge as may be gained. Additionally, the Society shall endeavor to accomplish the following: encourage professional growth and development of its members, and the maintenance of high standards of laboratory analyses in the Air Force; encourage professional and social contacts among members of the various disciplines; foster mutual understanding and beneficial relations between its members, and other members of the Air Force and civilian medical community; hold at least one scientific meeting yearly for exchange of ideas and the presentation of papers, and undertake any other activities which the Board of Governors of the Society may direct.

FOURTH: The post office address of the principal office of the Corporation in Maryland is 1333 Winding Waye Lane, Silver Spring, Maryland 20902. The name and post office address of the resident agent of the Corporation in Maryland is Harold Louis Newman, 1333 Winding Waye Lane, Silver Spring, Maryland 20902. Said resident agent is a citizen of Maryland and actually resides therein.

FIFTH: THE CORPORATION SHALL NOT BE AUTHORIZED TO ISSUE CAPITAL STOCK.

SIXTH: The number of directors of the Corporation shall be three, which number may be increased or decreased pursuant to the by-laws of the Corporation, but shall never be less than three; and the names of the directors who shall act until the first annual meeting or until their successors are duly chosen and qualified are Harold Louis Newman, William Bew Price, and John Gordon Webster.

SEVENTH: The following provisions are hereby adopted for the purpose of defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation and of the directors and members: said Corporation is organized primarily for educational purposes, no part of the net earnings of which is to inure to the benefit of any member, officer, or other individual. The Board of Governors may choose the first members in accordance with the By-Laws. The Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Governors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Governors shall determine. To purchase, lease, hold, sell, mortgage, or otherwise acquire or dispose of real or personal property necessary for the activities of the organization; to enter into, make, perform, or carry out contracts of every kind with any firm, person, corporation or association necessary for the accomplishment of the objects and purposes herein set forth; to do any acts necessary or expedient for carrying on any or all of the objects and purposes of this corporation not forbidden by law, or by this certificate of incorporation, or by its by-laws, or the laws of the State of Maryland. In general, to have all powers conferred upon a non-stock, non-profit corporation by the laws of the State of Maryland, except as herein prohibited or forbidden by the by-laws of this corporation.

The corporation shall have a Board of Governors. The number of governors which shall constitute the whole Board shall be such as from time to time shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in the by-laws, but in no case shall the number be less than the minimum number provided by statute. The conditions, method of admission, qualifications, and classifications of membership, the limitation, rights, powers and duties of members, the dues, assessments and contributions of members, the method of expulsion from and termination of membership, limitations upon qualifications of voting power, and all other matters pertaining to the membership and the conduct, management and control of the business, property and affairs of the corporation shall be as provided from time to time in the by-laws of the corporation. The private property of the members and directors of the corporation shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever.

EIGHTH: The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.
